

Elements Prayer

Lord, I ask you to remove the ungodly thrones that have been manipulating the fiery stones, the essence of who I am. I no longer allow the basic equations of my spirit, soul and body to be affected by ungodly thrones. Please disconnect and sever me from the ungodly algorithms and equations affecting the elements of my body, and restore your righteous algorithms, correctly establishing the righteous throne. I no longer allow the enemy to constantly shift the elemental spirits through the dimensions and/or domains. Please stop the constant shifting of the ungodly pathways, windows, and thrones through the dimensions. I do not allow the enemy to undo Your righteous realignment.

Lord, please:

- Remove all ungodly bonding and covalent bonding of the elements.
- Close all ungodly doors to the electrons, neutrons, protons and all sub-atomic particles of the elements on the periodic table, and open all doors that need to be open so the gates will not be shut again
- Remove any parts of me from the ungodly pathways and establish me on the righteous pathways so I will move on Your way.
- Bring all these elements into the correct creative order.
- Correctly align the elements to each other.
- Bring each element into balance and harmony with all other elements of the body.
- Bring all pathways into alignment with the finished work of the cross.

On behalf of my family line and myself, going back to the beginning of time, I repent and renounce for purposeful attempts to change the elements of creation and for unknowingly affecting them in any way, shape, or form through ungodly means. I confess that these have been sinful actions taken against You. Forgive us, Lord.

I renounce all sin, iniquity, and transgression relating to the elements in my family line and acknowledge that you, Jesus Christ, died on the cross and became sin for us that we might become the righteousness of God in Christ Jesus! Father, You are Lord of creation; You created all things and they are holy, good and right in You.

As I pray, please:

- Restore the elements to their proper levels so that they correctly affect my spirit, soul, and body
- Apply all corrections in the elements in my body to my children and grandchildren.
- Cleanse each of the elements and remove any defilement, ungodly substance, ungodly entity as well as any attachments or unclean spirits throughout time, space, dimensions and any other way.
- Apply your anointing and light cover, and saturate each of the elements in my life to the level that you desire so that I live a full life in the Lord Jesus Christ.
- Adjust the electromagnetic fields of each element.
- Break the power of all generational alchemy that has influenced the elements of my body.
- Disconnect each element from all ungodly rulers, elders, powers, authorities, and thrones that bind me to each element in any ungodly way.
- Bring the sounds, colours, and vibrations of each element back into your intended original creation design.
- Disconnect each element from all ungodly stars, star systems, zodiacs, constellations and galaxies.
- Correctly adjust the seven eyes of the Lord to each element and remove each element from any ungodly places in the length, width, height and depth, and from ungodly place in any time dimension.

Lord, please:

Bring each element that is supposed to be in my body to the correct created design, correctly balancing and stabilising everything so that each element correctly affects my DNA, RNA, body, soul and spirit, and that of my children and grandchildren.

Remove any element on the Periodic Table that does not belong in my body.

Cause each element to bind correctly to itself and other elements; refine each element in Your fire, bringing each one to its proper level; and establish each element in me so that I am correctly established as a living stone from this day forward in the name and light of your name, Jesus Christ.
